"Horse Play" Is Joke of Camp.

By RUSSELL M. McLENNAN,
First Lieutenant, N. G. D. C.

Frederick, Md., Aug. 22.—To-day's work of the District brigade was that of preparation for the big day of the encampment at Camp Ordway. In official language, the main feature was "regimental drill, extended order, including advance guard and attack." This was the first work of the day. Later in the morning the problem was "advance guard by battalion without contact."

OFFICERS GO TO SCHOOL.

Friday will be devoted to all day maneuvers. This afternoon there was a session of the noncommissioned officers' school. The subject was "Patrolling." Parade to-day was given by the First Separate Battalion. The full companies of this organization is unusual in the District brigade, which, with their perfect alignment and all around soldierly appearance, made it one of the best drills yet seen. During the afternoon there was a conference on advance guard at the officers' school.

While the First and Second regiments, the First Separate Battalion, and the First Field Artillery, were out in the field to-day carrying on their warlike drills, the Signal Corps was giving a preliminary test of its wireless equipment. One set was sent about two miles away from camp. The pole and net were put up in about twelve minutes and two or three messages sent to brigade headquarters, where a wireless station is located.

Several buzzer lines were laid and successfully used without hitch. Both of these systems will be extensively used during the problems and maneuvers for the balance of the encampment.

"What? What? Say, some of you fellows come out here and grab this buzzer. He's backing into the tent and I can't hold him."

These were the loud words that aroused the sleepers in one of the conical tents in the Signal Corps camp about 2 o'clock this morning.

Private to the Rescue.

Private H. F. Church sprang from his cot and grabbed for a lantern. In the meantime, the voice was excitedly rambling on:

"For heaven's sake come out here and grab this buzzer. It's going to knock down the tent."

"All right," Church replied. "I'll be here in a minute. I'm lighting a lantern."

And when the light flickered its rays over the tent, he sprang backward, where was the rider in the tent, grasping with his mount. The latter was a fine, absolutely no noise. The excited rider was Corp. C. C. Duval.

Then Church laughed hysterically, heads peeped from other cots, and the tent was a scene of confusion. They saw Corp. Duval on his cot. He tried to rise, but he was desperately pulling on the lines of his cot, which were entangled in a "knot."

He also laughed when he awoke and was told of his antics.

Hard lines to have to ride a day.

So Sore
Couldn't Walk
Down Stairs—
Cured Her Quick.

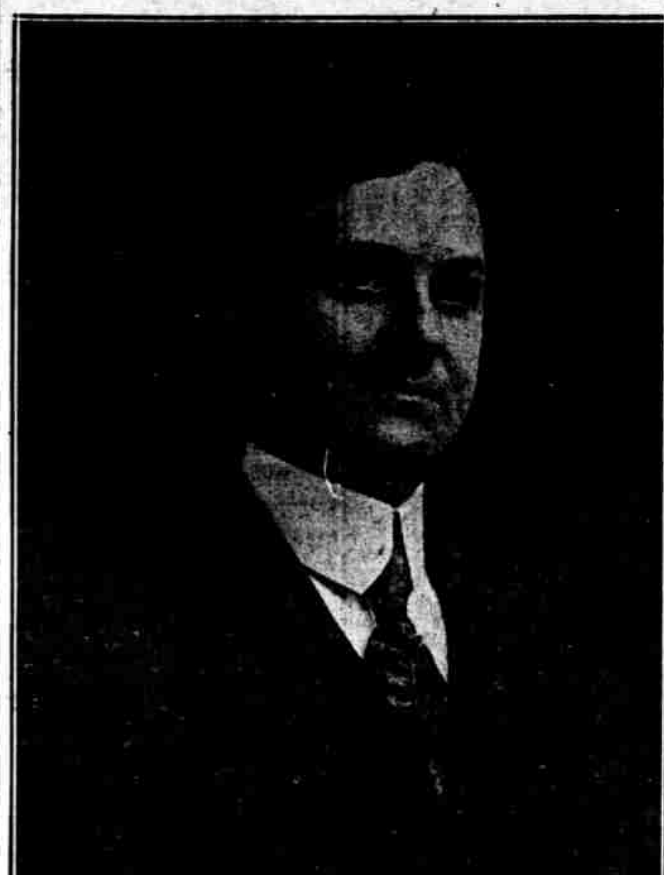

If you have sore feet, tired feet, twenty feet, lame feet, tender feet, smelly feet, corns, callouses, or bunions, read what happened to Mrs. Crockett, of Jeffersonville, TIE DIED IT.

Mrs. Crockett says: "After the second treatment she walked downstairs, one foot at a time. She had not been able to walk downstairs before in the past five years, except by stepping down on each step with one foot at a time. This is remarkable. Send five more boxes."

No matter what ails your feet or what under heaven you have used without getting relief, just use TIE. It's different. It acts right off. It cures sore feet to stay cured. It's the only foot remedy ever made which acts on the principle of drawing out all the poisonous exudations which cause sore feet. Powders and other remedies merely plug up the pores. TIE cleans them out and keeps them clean. You will feel better the first time it's used. Use it a week and you can forget you ever had sore feet. There is nothing on earth that can compare with TIE. It is for sale at all drug stores, 15 cents per box, or direct, if you wish, from Walker, Luther Duggan & Co., Chicago, Ill.

horse and a nightmare all in twenty-four hours," he said, to-day when "jollied" about the matter.

There was an exciting race in camp to-day. At first it was to have been an impromptu one, but when the permission of Brig. Gen. Harries was given in an off-hand way, he gave consent only when it was agreed to give all the officers at headquarters a chance to see it. While the word was being sent around, several small bets were placed.

Maj. Fox Wins Race.

After evening parade Sergt. Clifford Lanham, of the brigade non-commissioned staff, informally challenged Maj. Carl J. Fox, chief ordnance officer, to a race. There was no expectation of acceptance. To Sergt. Lanham's surprise, Maj. Fox turned to Brig. Gen. Harries and asked permission. It was immediately granted, with the above proviso.

Both Maj. Fox and Sergt. Lanham have beautiful mounts. When the race began from the far end of the drill ground toward headquarters, Sergt. Lanham got away in the lead. This was maintained until the foot of the hill, where headquarters is located was reached. Then Maj. Fox's handsome mount stretched out and passed that of Sergt. Lanham.

The major reined in and motioned to the desperately riding sergeant to come along.

"Why, major, I thought you asked permission to race," Gen. Harries smilingly commented on the result.

Despite the hard work of the Signal Corps company, it was again chosen to-night as the mounted patrol to pick up men absent from camp without leave.

DR. DAVIDSON IMPRESSED
BY SCHOOLS OF CAPITAL

Dr. Davidson, superintendent of schools, upon hearing that there was a possibility that the Armstrong School would not be ready in time for the opening of the session, inspected the structure late yesterday afternoon. He said last night he thought the building would be finished in time for occupancy September 18, and that the heating apparatus would be ready by October 1. The addition, he said, would not be finished until January 1, the time stated in the contract.

When asked to give his views as to the schools in Washington, Dr. Davidson said that he had not yet completed his tour of inspection. He said he had visited the schools in the District of Columbia, including the Western High School, which he found very favorable. He said he had not yet visited the schools in the District of Columbia, including the Western High School, which he found very favorable.

Loss of Pythians' Fund Left
Widow Destitute on Ship.

MILITARY FUNERAL TO-DAY

Dressed in a simple costume of widow-hood, Mrs. Minnie Dennis, surrounded by her six little children, recounted last night the story of her trip from the Canal Zone to Washington, where she arrived penniless last Friday night. Friends were found who were willing to give aid. S. H. Bassett, grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of the District of Columbia, and G. W. Baumann, a member of the organization, visited the Confederate Veterans' Home last night to investigate the case, because it was said Lieut. L. R. Dennis, the husband, whose body the widow had accompanied from the Zone, was a member of the organization.

Little by little, as Mrs. Dennis related her story, the real facts came to light. The only mystery yet remaining is why the Knights of Pythias of Washington had not been informed that Mrs. Dennis, her six little children, and the body of her husband were to arrive in this city last Friday. The only possible solution, according to Mr. Bassett, is that the telegram of explanation miscarried.

Escorted by Pythian Friends.

This opinion was strengthened when Mrs. Dennis, who is very frail from a long siege of illness in a hospital in the Canal Zone, told in a few words how the members of the Knights of Pythias had marched to the dock with the body of her husband, and how she was escorted to the steamer by several of the officers of the local lodge.

The fact that she arrived in Washington penniless is a feature of the case which mystifies the local lodge. Mrs. Dennis stated that she saw a check for $100 made out in her name. It was a check from the Knights of Pythias, the money due her at the death of her husband.

She said that she was the pursuer of the ship refused to be the custodian of the funds. A few seconds later the "ashore" gong sounded and with a brief statement that the check would follow on the next boat the men hastened from the ship.

Assured by the members of the organization that she would be met in Washington by a delegation, who would see to her wants, Mrs. Dennis felt confident that she would be cared for, and so thought little of the episode until her arrival here.

Bassett, who is chairman of the executive committee of the relief bureau, said last night that Mrs. Dennis would receive every attention from the organization.

Mrs. Dennis will receive a substantial sum from the organization, sufficient at least to enable her to live while seeking employment. She is still too weak to undertake any hard work, but she declared last night that she would not remain idle a moment after she was sufficiently recovered to work.

"I want to work for my little children," she said, "and I trust that I will be able to find employment."

Funeral services for Lieut. Dennis will be held to-day in the chapel at Arlington by the chaplain. Arrangements were completed yesterday afternoon by the Army and Navy Union, Spanish War Veterans, and the Knights of Pythias. A detachment of soldiers from Fort Myer has been ordered by the War Department to participate in and to fire the volley over the grave.

MEASLES CASES ARE DECREASING

Health Department Receiving
New Notices.

The health department of the District for the first time has been trying to secure information from physicians in the city in regard to cases of contagious diseases.

The development of which has not been reported to the office. The failure of physicians to submit information in regard to the cases is causing the department much trouble, as large numbers of contagious diseases are recorded, while the officials are positive that there are only a few cases in the District.

About a week ago there were 700 cases of measles on the books of the department, while Health Officer Woodward was confident that there were not 100 cases in the District. Yesterday there were approximately 500 cases recorded, some replies having been received during the week in answer to the department's request for information and cooperation from the physicians.

No Reduction of Assessment.

Chicago, Aug. 22.—Hetty Green, America's wealthiest woman, was refused a reduction upon the assessment of property situated at 524-528 South Wabash avenue by the board of review to-day.

The value of $140,000 was placed upon the land by the owner. The assessor valued the land at $135,712, which figure the board refused to change.

MAN HELD FOR ASSAULT SUDDENLY GOES INSANE

Alleged Assailant of Aged Virginia Couple Becomes Violent at Station House and Is Taken to Washington Asylum Hospital.

Edward Epps, the negro arrested after a desperate fight Saturday night on a charge of robbing and brutally beating Mr. and Mrs. John McClintock in their home at Annandale, Fairfax County, Va., went suddenly insane in his cell at the Fourth precinct station yesterday.

Ever since he was taken into custody

the negro has maintained a surly and defiant attitude toward detectives who have questioned him about the violent perpetration upon Mr. and Mrs. McClintock. He has obstinately denied that he took any part in the crime. According to the police, he can prove no alibi as to his actions on the night preceding and the morning after the crime.

At first the negro was thought to be shamming insanity or affecting an air of bravado. Early yesterday morning he began screaming that he had been shot in the abdomen by an enemy. When offered food the negro threw it at the policemen through the bars of his cell door. Then he began beating himself against the walls of his cell.

Fearing that he would do himself bodily harm, the police sent him to the Washington Asylum Hospital. Last night Superintendent Eshkman said that the negro was very violent.

NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Firemen Confused When Two Alarms Are Sounded.

SEARCH IN VAIN FOR BLAZE

Need of Modern Signal System
Demonstrated When Mix-up Follows
Calls for Apparatus—Capt.
Joseph Reynolds Dies at Home
After Lingering Illness.

Alexandria, Va., Aug. 22.—Two alarms of fire this evening stirred Alexandria and incidentally showed the need of a modern fire alarm system. On both calls, the firemen got mixed up on the number and the engines went to parts of the city where there was no fire. Fortunately both blazes had been extinguished in point of service.

The second alarm was sounded just as the volunteers were about to embark for the State convention at Newport News. The alarm did not interfere materially with their plans, however.

Capt. Joseph Reynolds, eighty-seven years old, died this morning at his home, 1121 Prince street, after a lingering illness. He was one of the oldest railroad employees in point of service.

He was a native of Jefferson County, W. Va., and came here in 1861, since which time he has lived here. He began service with the old Orange and Manassas Railroad, and afterward had been employed by the Washington Southern Railway Company.

Capt. Reynolds is survived by the following children: Charles, Joseph, George, and Mrs. John J. Bayne, Mrs. Edward Williams, and Mrs. Samuel B. Snyder, the latter of Reading, Pa. Funeral arrangements have not been completed.

It is expected that the Fairfax County authorities, through C. Vernon Ford, Commonwealth attorney, will shortly make application to Gov. Mann to have Edward Epps, a negro, held by the Washington authorities on suspicion of assaulting and robbing Mr. Alexander McArthur of $500, brought to Virginia for a hearing. The authorities of that county are said to be of the opinion that Epps may also be implicated in the recent thefts of harness in that county.

As the Norfolk steamer sailed to-night, sixty friends of this city, who have gone to attend the annual State convention in Newport News, were given a rousing ovation by a throng on the wharf. The local firemen were accompanied by delegations of firemen from Charlottesville, Woodstock, Strasburg, and Harrisonburg.

In an official notice, just published by the Democratic committee of the Fourth congressional district, State Senator R. Ewell Thornton has been declared the nominee of the party, there being no opposition. A. J. Wedderburn, of Fairfax, announces he will run in the general election, November 7.

Because he claims to be the champion poet of the world, and to have held that title for the past thirty years, Tom Johnson, seventy-one years old, was adjudged insane to-day by a lunacy commission composed of Drs. Walter A. Warfield, L. Lee Wilkins, and Justice Richard B. Washington. Johnson announced the lunacy commission and others with some of his rhymes. Johnson says he came from Illinois, although he has been living in various parts of the State for many years. He has been in Alexandria but two days.

Policeman Rawlett to-day arrested James Edley, a negro, sixteen years old, on suspicion of the theft of a bicycle from Washington. He was arrested after riding the wheel from Occoquan to this city. Edley claims he purchased it in Occoquan from another negro for $18.

"AFFINITY" FILMS
BARRED BY COHEN

Manager Is Ready to Halt
Beulah Binford Pictures.

With opposition from the managers of moving picture film exchanges, owners of 5-cent theaters, the clergy, the District authorities, and a large percentage of the public, there is little possibility of Beulah Binford, the center of attraction in the Beulah murder case, appearing on the moving picture screens of Washington in the sensational melodrama which is now being planned for production by a local company.

"To ask any person whether or not films of Beulah Binford if produced will be shown in Washington is absolutely absurd," declared H. J. Cohen, manager of the General Film Company, Seventh and E streets northwest, to a reporter of The Washington Herald last night.

The public and the police authorities would not permit such an outrage in the Capital of this great country. I voice the sentiments of practically all the moving picture men in the city when I say that the owners of theaters and handlers of films will not permit the use of pictures in which this woman takes any part.

"If we have to make money out of the outskirts of society we might as well go out of business. We wouldn't use films depicting Beulah Binford if they were given to us for nothing. And, moreover, I don't think the public would submit to the exhibition of the pictures if we should offer them to the theaters. I say positively and with some authority that the films will not be shown in Washington."

Commissioner Rudolph said yesterday, in regard to the question, that there is no law in the District to prevent the films being shown, as long as they are not obscene. He said that the exhibition of pictures of the crime will not be permitted, whether Beulah is one of the cast or not.
